

WORTH NOTHING

20TOKENS

Tell me that I was
Worth nothing to you
Stab me with your words
Scars I can't undo
Tell me that I was
Someone you don't wanna know
There's no going back
No going back no more
Tell me that I was
Worth nothing to you
Stab me with your words
Scars I can't undo
Tell me that I was
Someone you don't wanna know
There's no going back
No going back no more

Tell me why can't you see or is it just me?
When you spread your pure angel wings
My world's breaking quickly
You are heaven to me, but I
Live in sin that leaves me with nothing
Let my soul just slip away
From your cold hands, I can't stay
It's not something that you need anyway

Tell me that I was
Worth nothing to you
Stab me with your words
Scars I can't undo
Tell me that I was
Someone you don't wanna know
There's no going back
No going back no more
Tell me that I was
Worth nothing to you
Stab me with your words
Scars I can't undo
Tell me that I was
Someone you don't wanna know
There's no going back
No going back no more

Tell me that I mean something to you
I don't wanna waste another day
If you wanna rip my heart in two
Please, just do it now and ease the pain
I don't wanna feel no more
Can't take being all alone
Push me into my own grave
There's no going back
Out of the gates of hell
Hell

Tell me that I was

Worth nothing to you
Scars I can't undo
Tell me that I was
Tell me that I was
Worth nothing to you
Stab me with your words
Scars I can't undo
Tell me that I was
There's no going back
