

Beautiful Morning

22-Pistepirkko

What a beautiful morning
What a beautiful sky
What a beautiful morning
What a beautiful day

Inner page is whispering me
There's a hole in the sky
No more winter
No more snow
Baked winds
And we take a swim

We don't know tomorrow
But we have this day
Don't you worry honey
This is painless way

What a beautiful morning
What a beautiful day
Let's step off the deep end
Would you marry me today

Take your things
Leave note to your ma
Iron pony is waiting
I only take my spurs
And shot my dog

Badland here we come
We don't know tomorrow

But we have this day
Don't you worry honey
This is painless way

What a beautiful morning
What a beautiful day

What a beautiful morning
What a beautiful day
