

Couldn't Say Sorry

24hrs

(How long you can take the wrong guy?)
(Beartrap Sound)
(How long you can take the wrong guy?)
(Hol' up)

I've been treating women like tattoos, I never finish
Gave you lines and never fill you in about the other bitches
When I look at my skin, I see empty space, I need to fill in
When I look in the mirror, I see no face, just see the distance
I play like I'm alive, only half of that true
Other half is with you
I try to see you in a different light
Try to put you in words
They don't matter, they don't fit
They don't even make sense, uh

Only problem is
I see you in colors that don't exist
In colors that don't even exist, girl
I see the future in your eyes
I see my past and all my sins
Swear to God, I see God
When I'm touching on your skin

I couldn't say sorry
I don't know what that is
I don't know what I did to you
I couldn't say sorry
I don't know what love is
If it even exists, I'll admit

I swear that after I hit it, they start growin' up, they start growin' up
And once they glow up, they start to fit in
And once they fit, in they start taking pics, they start taking pics
I couldn't say sorry

What would I say sorry?
When I know I don't mean it
I could tell you been into me
Even though they can't see it
And because you work a 9 to 5, I only see you on the weekend
Too much of anything not good for you
Just look at everything you put me through
Even when I'm wrong
As an adult admit everything that I did
Hope you stay down and just fuck with the kid
Now you around, you can see how I live
Hard to say sorry, just hope you forgive
Just hope you forgive

Only problem is
I see you in colors that don't exist
In colors that don't even exist, girl
I see the future in your eyes
I see my past and all my sins
Swear to God, I see God
When I'm touching on your skin

I couldn't say sorry
I don't know what that is
I don't know what I did to you
I couldn't say sorry
I don't know what love is
If it even exists, I'll admit

I swear that after I hit it, they start growin' up, they start growin' up
And once they glow up, they start to fit in
And once they fit in, they start taking pics, they start taking pics
I couldn't say sorry
