

Flake

24hrs

Tell me a time that I flaked
Always was ready to skate
Me and you fucking this cake
Planning on making a tape
Titties all over the Bape
You tucking all of my zipper
You got the moves, I got dancing
Think that I might just tip you

Tell me a time that I flaked
Tell me a time that I flaked
Tell me a time that I flaked
Tell me a time that I flaked
Me and you fucking this cake
Planning on making a tape
Titties all over my Bape
Tell me a time that I flaked

You get off work around 8
Tell me a time that I flaked
You can tell that I care for you
Everytime I was there for you
I look you dead in your eyes
And tell you "you better not cry"
Put you before all my bros
I could've fuck all my hoes
His and hers new Balenci's
You obsessed with Givenchy
Pussy begs when you miss me
Close your eyes when you kiss me
For you girl you know I'd kill one
Throw it back for a real one
Only giving with them dead guys
Champagne with the sunrise
All of your diamonds is real
All of your bitches is fake
Please name a time that I flaked
Please name a time that I flaked
Call me when you at the gate
I surprised you with a cake
It ain't like I'm tryna break you
It don't take one girl it take two
