Hmm, hmm
Ooh-ooh, ooh
Hmm, hmm
Yeah

Ain't been the same since you left me
Can't feel no pain, only empty
Fake love feel good 'til it's over
How we turned from lovers to loners?
Ain't been the same since you left me
Can't feel no pain, only empty
Fake love feel good 'til it's over
How we turned from lovers to loners?

It would take a thousand years to forget the tears
That you placed across my face
And now I'm sittin' here, thinkin', oh my dear
What a gorgeous waste of space
Tryna get away from the way that you make me feel
Stone cold, if your looks could kill
Waitin' for the day you admit that your love wasn't real
Go ahead, baby, seal that deal
Messages we wrote between us
Pictures on your phone, delete them
Never thought your soul could keep up
Far as I know, say it ain't so (Ooh, ooh-ooh)

Ain't been the same since you left me
Can't feel no pain, only empty
Fake love feel good 'til it's over
How we turned from lovers to loners?
Ain't been the same since you left me
Can't feel no pain, only empty
Fake love feel good 'til it's over
How we turned from lovers to loners?

You say it right (Right)
I'll be alright (Alright)
She's leavin' for me, pick your clothes up (Clothes up)
This cup all I need for some closure (Yeah, yeah)
It didn't mean nothin' (Nothin')
Or when you cry to me (To me)
Got me thinkin' real love, no such (Such)
Then my pockets stay fat, no tone-up (Yeah)
Five trips to Barcelona
How we turned from lovers to loners?
Everything that we did, gotta own up (Own up)
Got no feeling in my heart, need a donor

Ain't been the same since you left me
Can't feel no pain, only empty
Fake love feel good 'til it's over
How we turned from lovers to loners?
Ain't been the same since you left me
Can't feel no pain, only empty
Fake love feel good 'til it's over
How we turned from lovers to loners?

Ooh, ooh
For you and for me, it's over
