

I Remember

I remember when I was young
Watchin' the risin' sun, wishin' that I was someone else
I remember when the nights were long
Singin' my momma's songs, pickin' the pieces off the ground, mm-
hmm

Pack a lunch, a tuna sandwich in a brown paper bag
Shop at Ross to cut the cost before the first day of class
Anything to save a dollar, dollar
Yeah, I got it from my momma, momma
Ain't nobody lookin' like me when I walked into math
Had the teachers treat me different, made me hate bein' black Feelings I ain't even acknowledge, acknowledge Till I finally got to college, college
And I was only age twelve when my first friend had died
Jumpin' off the same bridge, we laid the [?] stuck in drive
Through the foggy, even pourin', pourin'
And he ain't escaped the boredom

I remember when I was young
Watchin' the risin' sun, wishin' that I was someone else
Singin' my momma's songs, pickin' the pieces off the ground, mm-
hmm

Do you believe me now? Do you believe me now?
Traded the monsters in my closet for childish dreams and hopele
ss nonsense
Do you believe me now? Do you believe me now?
Dealin' with issues I've been dodgin', just give me some time,
I'll shake 'em off me
Do you believe me now? Do you believe me now?
Traded the monsters in my closet for childish dreams and hopele
ss nonsense
Do you believe me now? Do you believe me now?
Dealin' with issues I've been dodgin', just give me some time,
I'll shake 'em off me, mm-hm
