

Rush

24kGoldn

I need your touch, it don't leave much to desire
I feel the rush, it's creepin' up, take me higher
I feed from love, won't let the darkness define us
I long for you on the long days, I yearn for you when I'm lonely
I need you—

Back in my room (Yeah)
Back in Carbone, you know the tension is high, shit, you could cut with a knife (Yeah)
Dinner for one, I guess you leavin' me too, that was a hell of a fight (Sheesh)
Overconsumed, my stomach still isn't full, I live a hell of life (Yeah)
Gon' be a hell of a night

I can see your face when you not there (There)
Who gon' take your place when you not here? (Here)
Pour another drink for the lost souls (Lost souls)
But I be gettin' high when I feel low (Low)
You ain't never cared where we come from
Holdin' back the texts that we run from
You was even there when I was nothin'
So I can't let you go

I need your touch, it don't leave much to desire
I feel the rush, it's creepin' up, take me higher
I feed from love, won't let the darkness define us
I long for you on the long days, I yearn for you when I'm lonely
I need you—

On the lonely nights when I have no place to go
Need you by my side like Adidas stripes for sure
And you done this dance, though our history stand to show
You know

I can see your face when you not there (There)
Who gon' take your place when you not here? (Here)
Pour another drink for the lost souls (Lost souls)
But I be gettin' high when I feel low (Low)
You ain't never cared where we come from
Holdin' back the texts that we run from
You was even there when I was nothin'
So I can't let you go

I need your touch, it don't leave much to desire
I feel the rush, it's creepin' up, take me higher
I feed from love, won't let the darkness define us
I long for you on the long days, I yearn for you when I'm lonely

I need your touch, I need your rush, I need your glow, yeah
I need your light, went out of sight, where did you go? Yeah
I need your fix, I need your heat, I need some more, yeah
Ain't enough, scratch the itch, I need it slow, yeah

I need your touch, it don't leave much to desire
I feel the rush, it's creepin' up, take me higher
I feed from love, won't let the darkness define us
I long for you on the long days, I yearn for you when I'm lonely

I need you—
