

Unconditional Love

2Baba

They don't know you but they constantly judge you
They don't know the shape of your head
But they constantly shaving it, hmnn
They don't have a clue, they don't know your body, hmnn
See, all I can say is you have a place in heaven, ehh
They don't understand the things that you go through A Nine-Months is not a joke, I tell you

Oh my Mama, see, Mama, I say I will love you till the end
My Mama, see, Mama, no one compares to you, I swear
I cherish you, God bless you, for all the selfless things you do
Mama thank you for raising me with Unconditional Love
With Unconditional Love, with Unconditional Love
Unconditional Love, Unconditional Love, Unconditional Love

I want to thank you Papa too, for staying with Mama
All through the years, all through the years
You thought me how to be a man, with love and kindness
You showed me how to treat people with respect and fairness
I always wondered how you did it against Mama kept you grounded
Ohhh Mama, you are more than an Angel, ih eh ihh

Oh my Mama, see, Mama, I say I will love you till the end
My Mama, see, Mama, no one compares to you, I swear
I cherish you, God bless you, for all the selfless things you do
Mama thank you for raising me with Unconditional Love
With Unconditional Love, with Unconditional Love
With Unconditional Love, Unconditional Love

They don't know you, but they constantly judge you
Unconditional Love
They don't know the shape of your head
But they constantly shaving it
Thank you Mama, I love you
