

ID BE LYING

2hollis

All my money coming in and I don't even care bout' it

I say I don't care, but I'd be lying (ay)
If I said I love you, I'd be lying-
And I'm trying
I be trying
Can't you lift me up?
How I'm dying

Been through so much with my sword, ay
I waited so long, waited two thousand days
Please do what I say, I don't got time
I'm up in Tenflower with my guys
And I see the light, yeah
And I walk like every mile
Every day I just smile, cause I-
Cause I think about what everything just means to me
And you stay up in my mind, cause you mean something
Stay up in my mind cause you mean something
And I go super fast, run away from my dreams
And the sword cut the armor but I don't let out no scream
Bitch I'm on a leefer, running straight into the trees
I'm in Ten, where are you?
Where are you?
And then I fled, cause I fear one thing too
I'm up in that Flower, uh
Counting all these petals, got me sour, fuck
It's on me in public
Chains on my head, yeah you stole that
And I put you on, but you fell off
Twenty thousand petals, bitch I'm well off, woah
They see what we on, yeah, they wanna get on it
Taking flicks but you not with me
Bitch I'm posted up with Lechy
Yeah I'm posted in the chimney
I'm just in that bitch, I'm grinning
Say cheese for the flick, then dip, you cannot be seen with me
