

Its Over

2hollis

It's over now, the smoke has cleared away
And there's nothing left to care about, anyway
I got too many demons to keep away (Keep away)
And if I'm weird to you then I probably shouldn't say (Shouldn't say)

Uh, and they like "Hollis, what it do? ", fuck it mean to you?
And it's all about my 2s, what I'm meant to do
Nodding on these screws, some of them are loose
But I'm always meant to lose, that's why I keep it at 2
I keep a gun that I do not wanna shoot
I do it for real, gotta check in with my dudes
I-I fucked up, nothing we can do
Shoutout gunshot, shoutout TDA, they cool
And a moment with my crew, a moment with my goons
Don't follow the rules, and I do not fuck with school
Shoutout [?] he a goon
Shoutout [?] he the druid
Different outcome of my destiny, I pick forbidden fruits

It's over now, the smoke has cleared away (Cleared away)
I got too many demons to keep away (Keep away)
And if I'm weird to you then I probably shouldn't say (Shouldn't say)
