It's metal sheets, turn from two to three
You're something that I always wanna be
You make a sharp left
I cut out all breath (Br-br-)
But you were perfect
I, uh, earned it
I-I-I know for certain she likes it (It, it)
Bi-bi-bite it, I know you want it-it
I know what you're thinking
(Girl, would you trust me?)
(Girl, would you trust me?)
(Girl, what you thinking?)
What you think-think-think-?
I know what you're thinking
Know what you're thinking
I know what you're thinking

T-t-t-
Think-
Think-
Think-

I hope you're alone
'Cause if you're not, we're done
While you try to cope
I'm face-first with the gun
I hope you find someone
Someone that you could love
Someone that you could trust
I know that I won't

They wanna know what I'm on
But they can't get it, you can't get it, you can't get it, nah
As I start to feel it all
As I start to feel like God
And you start to take it all
And I have nothing to lose
So I could not lose at all

And I have nothing to lose
So I could not lose at all
Pain, pain, pain, pain, pain
(Nothing to lose)
I have nothing to lose
So I could not lose at all

And I have nothing to lose
So I could not lose at all
