Why do I even bother asking someone?
I need you to tell me what you did
I can't see it and it's hard to believe it
When you get inside my fucking head
Why do I feel like jumping over?
Why the fuck are you playing hard to get?
The storm is over
Even when I feel sober, I'm paranoid out of my head

But I'm hanging onto safety
You could call me crazy
It feels best when I'm all alone
But it's so fucking hard to take me
You could never save me
I'm myself when I'm on my own
But I'm hanging onto safety
You could call me crazy
I feel best when I'm on my own
But it's so fucking hard to take me
Take me, take me, take me, take-take-take
I-I-I'm hanging onto safety

But I'm hanging onto safety
