I can't live without you
Don't leave me baby
I can't live without you
Don't leave me baby

I can't go anywhere outside
Because the rain is falling
The tears I held back are flowing
We're sitting across each other
Without saying anything
Only pressing down our aching hearts

It feels like it will end like this
It seems like the rain will stop soon
Be with me a little longer

It's a relief that it's raining
It's been raining all day
When this rain stops
You will leave me
It's still raining. please don't stop
If only we can be in the same place
That's enough for me
I'm still loving you

Rain is falling out the window
You and I are facing each other
This is the end
I can't hold onto you
Just like the bright sunset
Becoming the cold darkness
Hold on, I need you more
Your beautiful face
Your eyes that look right through me
Your smile every time we meet
Is dark like the outside right now
I'm afraid
The image of you leaving
Fades with the falling rain
When I see you for the last time
Rain falls from my eyes

It feels like it will end like this

It seems like the rain will stop soon
Be with me a little longer

It's a relief that it's raining
It's been raining all day
When this rain stops
You will leave me
It's still raining. please don't stop
If only we can be in the same place
That's enough for me
I'm still loving you

The sky knows how I feel
Hold her back, cry for me a little more
I can't let her go even if I die
Hide away my pitiful self in the rain
Like this forever

It's raining on my face, silently falling
When the flowing tears stop
Will you leave me then?
Your heart has left a deep scar
Rain wells up in it and it feels Like my breath will stop
It's still raining
I can't let you go, loving you
