After you turned away, I missed you so much
I ran to you crazily
But what is this, what is this?
You're in the arms of another
You stare at him and smile
This isn't it, this isn't it, no, this can't be

Baby, do you like being in his arms better?
Did you ever stop to think of me?
As soon as you turn away, as soon as you leave
Did you just erase me, forget me?
Don't you even have any regrets?
How could you be so natural?
As soon as you turn away, as soon as you leave

This is the story of how we broke up

As soon as I left you and turned away
I became so angry
Who are you to me? Who are you?
As I watch you laugh together
I pray that you'll be happy with him
Stupid, stupid, can't even talk, stupid

Baby, do you like being in his arms better?
Did you ever stop to think of me?
As soon as you turn away, as soon as you leave
Did you just erase me, forget me?
Don't you even have any regrets?
How could you be so natural?
As soon as you turn away, as soon as you leave
This is the story of how we broke up

I'll erase you from my heart
I don't need no consoling
I'm never going to love again
Fine, do as you want, if you want to leave, go ahead
I don't want to get hurt
I'm not sad at all, it ends right here

I'm sorry but I forgot you too
I have regrets but I've prayed for you, too
This is the story of our break up
This is the end right here

Baby, do you like being in his arms better?
Did you ever stop to think of me?
As soon as you turn away, as soon as you leave
Did you just erase me, forget me?
Don't you even have any regrets?
How could you be so natural?
As soon as you turn away, as soon as you leave
This is the story of how we broke up
