Back to square one
To the point when I first fell for you
You seem to have returned to then
And I'm just so frustrated

You act like nothing's wrong
As if you can't see me sighing
At the sight you just smiling
I'm so dumbfounded all I can do is laugh

The eraser in your head
Are you using it on me like every other time
Even as my heart beats towards you
I'm in the same place everyday

Why are you just smiling
You don't answer and just spin me around
I couldn't give anyone else
Other than you my love
Couldn't you come just a little bit closer
Couldn't you give your whole heart to me
I just hope that my love doesn't
Go back to the beginning

You seem like you're improving
But you go back to being cold
And I hate myself for just
Having to let you go again

I'm going to erase you now
Even if I make this promise I can't hold myself to it
Even as time flows and days pass
I'm in the same place, nothing changes

Why are you just smiling
You don't answer and just spin me around
I couldn't give anyone else
Other than you my love
Couldn't you come just a little bit closer
Couldn't you give your whole heart to me
I just hope that my love doesn't
Go back to the beginning

My life without you is like being an avatar with no owner
Don't laugh acting all coy
I'm tired of these mind games
I need you I miss you
All I can say are corny words what should I do
I want to hold on to you like a man, now
Please let me love you

(You make me crazy) I wanna feel your love
(You make me crazy) can you give me an opportunity

(You make me crazy) can't you feel my heart
Feel my heart?

Why are you just smiling
You don't answer and just spin me around
I couldn't give anyone else
Other than you my love
Couldn't you come just a little bit closer
Couldn't you give your whole heart to me
I just hope that my love doesn't
Go back to the beginning
