

Declared Void

3 Feet Smaller

Frustration became my life theme Everyone is trying to opress me again One more word against my will
And i swear this ends up in a kill You're around and throwing me down but i'll rise again
Here i don't belong
but i'm still strong
I've been through too much to give up now
Here i don't belong
but i'm still strong
Nothing can kill me, except myself Nothing i can turn to or hold on Need to rewind to find out what went wrong Everything i say get declared void i'm not your fucking toy i know i'm right
i'm gonna fight
Until you break down
