

Scared

3 Feet Smaller

I cannot find the words to explain how I feel Drowned in tears, can't go on this way.
Is this real?
I am distressed, I run away before I do something I don't wanna do Don't break my will
I will be alone
broken till you're gone
I'm not scared
of what the future will bring
I'm not scared
won't miss out on anything
I'm not scared
I've got to keep moving
I'm not scared
Not this time
Why can't I just be above such things, I blame it on Myself cuz this is all my fault or maybe not
It must be mine why else should everyone be mad at me It's always my fault and never yours you little piece of shit
I will be alone
broken till you're gone
I'm not scared
Of what the future will bring
I'm not scared
Won't miss out on anything
I'm not scraed
I've got to keep moving
I'm not scared
Not this time
