

Midnight Prayer

30 Seconds To Mars

Feels like the walls are closing in
Feels like beginning of the end
Oh oh, it's happening again
Beginning of the end

My mind's sick of me, always tricking me
Feeding me these lies
Telling me the last ones at midnight
Nighttime enemy, always sending me
Deep between the lines
Slipping over to the other side

Wake me up if I fall asleep
Don't wanna be alone in this nightmare 'cause I'll never leave
Once I jump, I jump in too deep
You know I take everything too far, insanity

Dream life, is it somewhere inside my mind?
Yeah, it seems like it gets so lost behind my eyes
And for once I, I just wanna feel alive
Can you help me feel alive?

My mind's sick of me, always tricking me
Feeding me these lies
Telling me the last ones at midnight
But we both know I should go home
That's a no-go, I'm a no-show
I'm slipping over to the other side

Wake me up if I fall asleep
Don't wanna be alone in this nightmare 'cause I'll never leave
Once I jump, I jump in too deep
You know I take everything too far, insanity

Free
But that's just me
Free

Wake me up if I fall asleep
Don't wanna be alone in this nightmare
