

If I forget you in the old ways
It should tell you something
That it was never about you
It was not for nothing

And when we broke in mansions
And when we drank their whiskey
And brought the battle to the mantle
The time moved quickly

Where are my people
Tell me where is the love
I need to find the sacred hoop
That is not broken up

We'll find the thunderbirds
Some new black mountain words
To purify all the lies
And all the human turds

But she loves me homie
And she treats me good
Is there something more
An addict like me could deserve

In a madhouse full of
Them electric snakes
Who are slinking out the back
Yeah to assassinate

I know you say you're done
I know you wanna run
But my love for you you'll savor
Braver braver than anyone
Braver than anyone
Braver than anyone
Braver than anyone

Can we regain our brains
Can we ever be sane
Send me a power bundle medicine
I can maintain

Send me eagles that can fly
Braves that can ride all night
A warm fire and a love
With loving faithful eyes

There's a river down below
Baby it's all we got
I can wrap you in a star quilt
No it's not a lot

It's where our tears can crash
From pain and from the laughs
Come on let's make some Good loving and let's make it last

I know you say you're done
I know you wanna run
But my love for you you'll savor
Braver than anyone
Braver than anyone
Braver than anyone
Braver than anyone
