

So you're finding it easier to make an excuse
To avoid the tense moment put your brain to use
Hate to be just a face in the crowd
But you won't take a risk and shout it out loud
Look back at the times you've let
Your palms getting sweaty, your face is turning red
Laugh just for once, just get a clue
Take my advice, here's what to do

Just thrive not sink
And don't sit and think
If your ass is bad
Put it down with me
Oh oh oh oh
Get off the ground and turn yourself around
Hit it

You are the god and so is she
Or at least I have never met
Anyone more deserving of the title
I, I said
You are the god and so are we
Or at least I've never met
Anyone more deserving of the title
But don't you just have to stop
And think of all the things we've created
Like love and art and shoes
Laugh just for once and just get a clue
Take my advice, here's what to do

Just thrive not sink
And don't sit and think
If your ass is bad
Put it down with me
Oh oh oh oh
Get off the ground and turn yourself around
Hit it

Just thrive not sink
And don't sit and think
If your ass is bad
Put it down with me
Oh oh oh oh
Get off the ground and turn yourself around
