

Can you tell?
Yeah
I'm on something
Can you tell? Yeah
Can you tell? Tell, tell

Can you tell?
This I haven't felt in a while
But, oh well
I'm here to set the world on fire
Bring 'em Hell
This I haven't felt in a while
But, oh well, I'm alright
'Cause you fell from the sky

I feel like, I feel like, I feel like
Spending all my money in a couple nights
Going out to clubs just to get in fights
Living out every single word I write, yeah
Let's see how it goes
Drugs in the chamber, I take and reload
Bet that you're wondering how I can float
With cannon balls making these holes in my boat

I feel like, I feel like, I feel like
Spending all my money in a couple nights
I feel like, I feel like, I feel like
Going out to clubs just to get in fights

Can you tell?
This I haven't felt in a while
But, oh well, yeah
I'm here to set the world on fire
Bring 'em Hell
This I haven't felt in a while
But, oh well, I'm alright
'Cause you fell from the sky

I feel like, I feel like, I feel like
Spending all my money in a couple nights
Going out to clubs just to get in fights
Living out every single word I write
I feel like, I feel like, I feel like
Spending all my money in a couple nights
Going out to clubs just to get in fights
Living out every single word I write, yeah

I'm on something, can you tell?
Candyflips at the hotel
I can be your acid tab
No one has to be sad
Woke up underneath your spell
Diving down these wishing wells
Falling fast, my face might melt
Hope that you don't fall as well

Can you tell?

This I haven't felt in a while
But, oh well
I'm just here to set the world on fire
Bring 'em Hell
This I haven't felt in a while
Until now
