

EVERYTIME

347aidan

Oh, nowhere to go
I'm still outside standing alone
It's been some time since we were home
We've lost our minds and all control

And don't you know who I do this for?
It's only you that saves me all the time
Yeah, don't you know who I do this for?
It's only you that saves me all the time

I poured my heart out, and what did I get back?
I put my trust in you, and I'll never do that
I put my heart on the line
I did it all for a lie, yeah

And don't you know who I do this for?
It's only you that saves me all the time
Yeah, don't you know who I do this for?
It's only you that saves me all the time

Yeah, where to go? I've lost my only antidote
Let me stay last night when times are low
Have you changed your mind? I need to know, yeah
Do you feel the way I feel right now? You think about it too?
Have you realized that we had it all, no need for someone new?

And don't you know who I do this for?
It's only you that saves me all the time
Yeah, don't you know who I do this for?
It's only you that saves me all the time

And don't you know who I do this for?
It's only you that saves me all the time
Yeah, don't you know who I do this for?
It's only you that saves me all the time
