

Gathering Bones

36 Crazyfists

Oh listener can you hear me?
Spirits been crushed and vanished beneath
Oh sympathy can you feel me?
Received the words of dead end sound
I never ever meant to lose your way

As black as night, I see ghosts surround my pain (surrounding my pain)
And you my heart, forever saint
Caught up in all this hell and I couldn't save you

Steal the sleep from our eyes, stealing the sleep

Can I save the air tonight?
I'll be all alone, open your lungs
I'm gathering bones

Stare at the sun until it burns your eyes
Caught in a daydream of death, of loss, love and lies
I am alive through a haze of sleep and you are my true north

With love and disease

Steal the sleep from our eyes
Stealing the sleep

Can I save the air tonight?
I'll be all alone, open your lungs
I'm gathering bones
Is there anything left at the end of the road?
I'm wishing you the best, as I'm gathering bones

Rest easy, easy for me

Cut me open, let it spill
Cut me open, let it spill
Cut me open, let it spill
Cut me open, cut me open

Can I save the air tonight?
I'll be all alone, open your lungs
I'm gathering bones

Is there anything left at the end of the road?
I'm wishing you the best, as I'm gathering bones
