

I look for answers to pave the truth
Loss fills like storm clouds underneath the moon
Don't plan to live forever but I wanted her to Burning hole where my heart was

Out in the distance the voices die
Hollow walls and empty eyes
Love alive where love never dies
Blacken the water it's harder to cry

I welcome damage and embrace scars
Grew up lightless the land of the dark
Thought I'd live forever, so many things to do
Broken under the armor

Out in the distance the voices die
Hollow walls and empty eyes
Love alive where love never dies

Blacken the water it's harder to cry

Nothing kills, it's lightless
Nothing kills this darkness, it's lightless

Don't plan to live forever but I wanted her to

I look for answers to pave the truth
Loss fills like storm clouds underneath the moon
Don't plan to live forever but I wanted her to

Out in the distance the voices die
Hollow walls and empty eyes
Love alive where love never dies
Blacken the water it's harder to cry

Nothing kills this darkness this darkness
It's lightless
