

Think about you all the time
Day and night, you're on my mind
Always want you by my side
(Side, side, side, side)
Babe, come home, what's up tonight?
I could be your alibi
Always want you by my side

You got me spinnin' in your atmosphere
It feels so good, I wanna stay right here
You got me spinnin' in your atmosphere
It feels so good, I wanna stay right here
You got me spinnin' in your atmosphere
It feels so good, I wanna-

Yeah, they see me changing the atmosphere
When I bring that shit that they have to hear
And I might be a pro of making that money
When shares made more than my rap career
And you'd die if you saw what I'm taxed a year
And you good down there? Average here
No labels at all, no majors involved
But I still got the magic near
You ain't never gonna grow this big (Uh) or go with 6 (Uh)
Or hear that noise when I blow this bitch (Uh, uh, uh)
Know my name when they see my face
'Cause I had it fully covered before Covid did
Dress so well that they jack my style
When I make you fly like a Boeing is
On stage, I get so many hats
When I'm making everybody wanna throw a fit (Uh)
You ain't got no growth, nada
Still, you think you're so gutter
You try going at these type of speeds
And you're going off the edge, no Road Runner
Bone crusher, ghost hunter
Hear that shit, I'm insinuating
All these fights, I've been instigatin'
Got me here in this situation
Oh brother, no, shut up
You the type to give information
Heard this kid's a big inspiration
Getting everybody to pick different stations
Yeah, one of the best
Confidence buildin' while pumpin' my chest
Come for revenge, I'm fuckin' with them
And will not give up till each one of 'em's, I'm back

You got me spinnin' in your atmosphere
It feels so good, I wanna stay right here
You got me spinnin' in your atmosphere
It feels so good, I wanna-

Bet you gonna take my style like it's on display
In a week, you wear what I rock today
But then, see these threads, you will want to change
I made mine work for me like Dr Strange

(Oi) I don't have to say my name when they know mine
Even though I got a few ones that I go by (Yeah)
See the look in my face like, "Oh, my"
[?] archin' her back and they know why
Add it to the archive now
Baddie with a fatty, and that arse like, "Wow"
Facin' her bed with her arse right out
[?] arch [?] lookin' like a halfpipe now
Psycho lately, find no safety
Get a little close and I might go crazy
They knowin' I ain't entered my prime
I'm so ahead of my time I got an iPhone 80
Maybe you should try writing differently
So outdated, try calligraphy
Play your song when I need a sleep
'Cause I hear you rap and get tired instantly
See ya try and go to flex with a beamer
Knowin' I [?] cheque for a feature
Last week ya played a pub
But you walkin' round like you wrecked an arena (Yeah)
Messy [?] indeed
Always had to charge for features with me
Forgot a price, go and shout me a night
The best line will cover the fee for sixteen

I've been balancing my time efficiently
New king of your life officially (Uh)
Forthwrite'll describe us literally
We kill you so you die with dignity
Make you sweat: lie detectors
Elden Ring: fights are endless
[?] got a slight resemblance
We start round two with a fire engine (Fire)
Shit so hard it's reported for violence
Slap so much, it has trauma inside it
Listen while you're drivin', [?] quiet
And still get arrested for causin' a riot
Still kicking back off Falling & Flying (Uh)
Hear the voices, gawking and crying
Still, hear the name when they walkin' behind us
Whisperin' 60, it's awkward to hide it
(That's 360)

When I appear?
W-W-when I premiere?
Bitch, the end of your lives are near
This shit been mine, mine!
What you gon' do when I appear?
W-W-when I premiere?
Bitch, the end of your lives are near
This shit been mine, mine!
