

Was it a waste of time
All of the years we left behind
Was it something I said
Cause you weren't like that
When we first met
Can we turn time back
Baby you rare
Might not find that ever again

I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you

It's like we dance around a topic, and won't get to the point
I can hear it in the tone of your voice, things are starting to change
It feels finished, it can't be the same
You point fingers, but I'm hardly to blame
All the damage got me panicking, having a fit
As I'm watching this life that we built getting shattered to bits
I can't believe how savage you've been
You really said
"When we're busy in our bed, you're imagining him"
Now I'm getting what your wish is
In everything I've witnessed
You're only ever pleasant when you're with him
Faking your affection, it's evident what this is Every single kiss feels like you're begging for forgiveness
Have a look at everything that you do
Made it clear that you're about to shoot through
Even when I tally up everything you've done to me

I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you

I know you're going through a rut, you've been letting me know
But this has got you feeling like anything goes
You're always out with those friends that you know, as you get on the blow
Are they really your friends if they're letting you go
You're not well, so I get that you'd throw a fit of rage
If I was in your shoes, I would go a bit insane
But know it isn't great when
I'm the only one to come and help you
And you still go and throw it in my face
This is totally disgraceful
Never thought I'd ever see us fade in an hour
Everything you did to me is making me sour
You got what you demanded
Took everything for granted
But now it's turning all my pain into power
Never would've guessed it, who knew
The best thing for me was to lose you
Now that you're begging for me back

Baby, don't think

I would go right back to you
Was it a waste of time
All of the years we left behind
Was it something I said
Cause you weren't like that
When we first met
Can we turn time back
Baby you rare
Might not find that ever again

I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
I would go right back to you
