

Broken Wings

360

Yeah, uh
Here's someone I'd like you to meet—rock bottom
You can hide it sometimes, today is not an option
You wanna tell your friends and you wanna spit it out
It's pretty hard to do, you'd hate to think you'd bring 'em down
But even though you'd want 'em to if they were in need of ya
Even though the front is hard to hold, it's still easier
And every day it shows its face, you're getting killed inside
It's so twisted, it's the thing that makes you feel alive
So you can't leave it, it's like you half need it
That inner demon, it makes you want to quit believin'
I know how you feel and really, yo, I know it's true
'Cause, honestly, that's exactly what I'm goin' through

My wings
Are broken
My wings
Are broken

Uh
Hi, you're in the eye of the storm
You should be glidin' away, but now some lightnin' is formed
All these clouds are surrounded around, you fightin' a war
You've seen this violence before, but you dunno what you're fightin' it for It's so hard to let your heart embrace it
You see it's hard to take it, it's getting larger and you can't escape it
It's like you can't uncover this grey cloud on you
So you sit there, hopin' it rains down on you
It'll swallow you whole, you know that that's standard
You see the ground, but it's bound to be a crash landin'
You need to be here now, you always go within
You wanna touch down, it's hard to do with broken wings
It's like your hearts pain is everything you can't take Forget about your past days, remember that our scars fade
I know how you feel, talkin' 'bout it won't do
But you'll be fine, that's exactly what I've gone through

My wings
Are broken
