

We'll light a fire and watch it burn
All up in smoke
Can't turn back time, now, every night
I'm chasing ghosts
If you're the spark, I need your light
Guiding me home
But you turn my heart, God, I'm still bleeding
Can't let go, can't let go, can't let go

Yeah, I don't know if I can be here
Shit has got me on the run now
I don't even need to take drugs
For me to go and have a come down
'Cause you've been doin' this shit for me
Really thought you were the one, now
You yellin' at me over small things
You used to come and give a hug 'bout
Got me thinkin' that the love's gone
Don't know what the fuck's wrong
Can't tell what the vibe is
But I do know that it's just off
Any issue that you ever havin'
Is becomin' somethin' that you run from
Patience on ice now
I'm the one you've had enough of
One fight was a month long
Where the hell has it all come from?
She takes what he says
And has to turn it to a punch on
So I pray now like "Fuck, God
Can you bring back who I once was?"
'Cause I'm hittin' fans with a breakup
When I'd rather hit 'em with a love song
Stuck in a honeymoon phase
All of a sudden, it's fuckin' insane
I'm understanding this struggle
But never get how I'm the one that you blame
Babe, why are you runnin' away?
'Specially over a fuckin' mistake
All of this shit that you promised you wouldn't I'm turnin' around and it's done and a day, wait

We'll light a fire and watch it burn
All up in smoke
Can't turn back time, now, every night
I'm chasing ghosts
If you're the spark, I need your light
Guiding me home
But you turn my heart, God, I'm still bleeding
Can't let go, can't let go, can't let go

I can see that you're needin' help
Feelin' hurt but won't let me try
You're the one that I'm married to
How the hell can I step aside?
Go and tell me some hurtful shit
I'm expected to let this slide

When I try to go mend the wound
You run away from me every time
Never thought that we'd ever fight so much
How the hell can I let this be?
If every night, I try get to sleep
You start a fight and try get to me
Really thought that we're meant to be
And thought that you were my destiny
Now any time that we ever speak
Is only with a damn referee
I know you needed help
Showin' up and I'd never leave
Didn't even try say goodbye
Took your shit and just let me be Tried to call, but could never reach you
Every message is left unseen
Can't believe that you ghosted now
Still, you've never been dead to me, yeah

We'll light a fire and watch it burn
All up in smoke
Can't turn back time, now, every night
I'm chasing ghosts
