

Namedropper 2.5

360

Rio Vaughn
I know everyone

I got business cards for days
I'm the plug if you want people
Not, like, in a human trafficking way but I just know cunts
You know? (Heaps of cunts)
Look, yeah

The best rappers in Australia 'ave gotta get served
The list you made are just names that you want me to merk
And so they listen to the words that I drop in a verse
Because to make the top five, you gotta body them first Yo, the game is so see-through and obvious still
If the scene doesn't put you off, the politics will Rappers make it from their character and not for the skill
None of them can fuckin' hang, but they wanna be chill
Talkin' shit about a whole life they ain't ever been in Never let shit slide, I'm gettin' on that king shit
Name me and get shamed, you gonna get your wig split
Makin' that mistake ain't somethin' you can live with You'd be happy too in the middle of these sisters (Yeah)
It's like I got a genie who's givin' me three wishes
When it comes to music, 60'll mean business
You always think of fire when picturin' three sixes
Off the glass, I ain't talkin' somethin' you bank in
The way you miss the meth (Meth'), I ain't talkin' Wu-Tang shit
Witcha girl, got her speakin' in a new language
And hear her make the same sound as a Liu Kang kick
Look, how long can this actually take?
I thought by 2023 though your rappin' 'd change
Ryan Reynolds of this shit with all them character traits
In every feature, your delivery's exactly the same
Teabag every critic that'll speak on us
Get a ball on every tongue like a Reebok Pump
Look at me and start to wonder if I been on drugs
Because the eyes are sorta lookin' like I'm Elon Musk
Yeah, they let me off the leash, so I better start the danger
Never drop the name, yo, I never bark at strangers
My career's got that Jeffrey Dahmer flavour
Quick to get ahead (A head) and then I kept the heart for later
Always keep it movin', it's impossible to sit still 360's on the air, that's the way the windmills
This skill's in still, you won't, 6 will
Legends never die [?] and you've already been killed

Yeah
Just showin' cunts I know everyone, you know, [?] fuckin' [?]
[?] (I know everyone)
Yeah (Woo!)
