

Yeah, you told me I'm the one, but darlin', you left me behind
We were dancin' in the shadows, we were searchin' for a light
Now you've played your cards, can't turn back time
You're my last mistake, someone else's dime
Baby, it wasn't hard throwin' memories in the fire
'Cause I could see your eyes were tellin' me to stay a while
But you've played your cards, can't turn back time
You're my last mistake, someone else's dime

You took everythin' we had, everythin' we workin' for You've been givin' me excuses, I heard 'em all
It's easy to run when you're facin' a fear
But the love is the thing you should turn towards
And any joy that we had, oi, it was mad
At the start, we were awesome at that shit
Then it got poisonous, batshit, noisy and ratchet
Said it from the start, you avoidin' attachment
So I shoulda known you would hit a roadblock
And you wouldn't go through it, nah
Deep down, when the fear arises, you've gotta push through
But you couldn't go do it, nah
When I'm feelin' lonely now
You're the woman that I want to come and see
Still think that you might be the one
But it's not the one for me

Yeah, you told me I'm the one, but darlin', you left me behind
We were dancin' in the shadows, we were searchin' for a light
Now you've played your cards, can't turn back time
You're my last mistake, someone else's dime
Baby, it wasn't hard throwin' memories in the fire
'Cause I could see your eyes were tellin' me to stay a while
But you've played your cards, can't turn back time
You're my last mistake, someone else's dime

Who the fuck are you talkin' to?
Why you breathin' the fire you walkin' through?
I know, yes, I might be the one that left, but you
Really can't see you're the one who went and forced me to You've been hidin' yourself from the onset
Couldn't hide anymore when you got stressed
This is nonsense, that we gotta drop dead
Over all of these words that you've not said
Blown up what I had, boom
Can't lie, this has put me in a bad mood
Really thought I was gonna be a dad soon
And have a mini-me to dedicate my raps to Now I'm fuckin' up again like "There he is"
And God's lookin' at me like it's hilarious
That I spent my life tryna find a treasure
While I'm never gettin' a gem I can share it with

Yeah, you told me I'm the one, but darlin', you left me behind
We were dancin' in the shadows, we were searchin' for a light
Now you've played your cards, can't turn back time
You're my last mistake, someone else's dime
Baby, it wasn't hard throwin' memories in the fire

'Cause I could see your eyes were tellin' me to stay a while
But you've played your cards, can't turn back time
You're my last mistake, someone else's dime
