

What I Need

360

I'm here to talk about love
A certain feeling when you walk with a buzz
Can't stop thinking about the person Yo it's more than enough
I'll be upfront I'm kind of scared of falling in love
It's the falling part I'm scared of being caught and then stuck

Inside of her mind kind of design with no control
Walking in with everything and leaving with a broken soul
All hopes revolve around you trying to see in hindsight
Nothing else matters now it seems you gotta find her mind

I try to find the right girl in the right time
I need to breath and proceed to read the right signs
Where's the guidelines I need some sort of help for now
I speak to anyone who thinks that they can help me out

I've held it out in front I'm feeling kind of guilty though
That if I didn't change my ways it would've killed me slowly
My shields up
Cause real love conceals me
And when she knows the real me whether she'll really feel me

All these words might be hard for you to see
It honestly what I really need for me
It's all real what I'm needin' her to be
And this song in its self
Sums up exactly what I need

It took me years to reach the level where I'm at
That confused way of thinking Yo I'll never get it back
And you've got years to grow
I know it takes time
But I can't be your boyfriend and your teacher at the same time
'Cause I need you on the same level I'm at
'Cause where I'm at now my brains at a climax
And whys that
'Cause I learnt to love my own company and underneath my blood I've got a lot of love for me
Your physicals good if were bumpin' for the night
But what turns me on is if you're doing something with your life
'Cause I'm gonna want a chick who's ambitious
Passionate too and who sticks to plans listens and got her shit together and is hardly a need
Open honesty
Always wears her heart on her sleeve
And that's it
When you find yourself you'll find me
But this song in itself sums up exactly what I need

All these words might be hard for you to see
It honestly what I really need for me
It's all real what I'm needin' her to be
And this song in its self
Sums up exactly what I need

I know it ain't easy to say ya need me
Believe me I'm gonna be pushed away if you're needy

Need and want they're two separate identities
But now you're in a state where you'll go and try anything to be around me
Can't be alone by yourself
Don't rely on me though because I won't be a help
That's not harsh I'm actually helping you in the long run
But once you found your feet you'll go and get that job done
But that don't mean that I'll never be around
'Cause I'm here whenever I can
Whenever you be down
But if I'm the only thing
That can pick you up
I can't have that pressure whenever all of this shit gets tough
You gotta sort all your own shit out first
Work it out yourself when you're feelin' like an outburst
This song's here and its out to help
But know you'll find me once you've found yourself
It shows

All these words might be hard for you to see
It honestly what I really need for me
It's all real what I'm needin' her to be
And this song in its self
Sums up exactly what I need

All these words might be hard for you to see
It honestly what I really need for me
It's all real what I'm needin' her to be
And this song in its self
Sums up exactly what I need
