

Penny pinching, I always had a scheme to get richer
Before I spoil a bitch, I spoil my sister
Let her know she don't need a nigga for nothing
But if you're fucking, fuck it might as well bleed a nigga

My top bitch good, she love to feed a nigga
I used to be known as a reefer dealer
Now it cost as least 10 bands to see a nigga
Where my weed and liquor?

We came from the struggle, know how to hustle
Yo, the trash spot closed so they free the duffle
I'm the quarterback I had to call a huddle
Fuck them niggas they wanted me in trouble
Shit was slow but I got it off the muscle uh
The streets don't love you uh
I treat it like a pot and make it bubble uh, yo
I got 20 bands and made it doubled it
And then I stacked 40 bands and then I doubled that

Where you see a struggle at?
I would be more humble but where the fun in that?
Now it's time to pass the bar to my running bat
Toss the bodies, ain't eerie, that's where we dump them at, uh
Go catch them on Jenny that's where we pumping at
I only spit real shit, don't do no mumble rap
And my product A1, I keep em' coming back, yo
I keep em' coming back
And my product A1, I keep em' coming back

Hey yo I rise from the dirt came out wiping my shirt, nigga
I'm more than just a ass, titty, thighs and a skirt
This nigga Thor, all he had to do was buy me a purse
That's why I never let you niggas come decide what I'm worth
The fuck you thought nigga?
I'm the wrong type for the antics, I might understand it
I don't give a price you can manage
I treat my lyrics like a paint brush, my life is the canvas
I'm tryna eat but everybody want a bite out the sandwich
We from the same block, the same plot, we just tryna chase knots
We hate cops and spray ops, tryna dodge the raindrops
I'm waiting on one of you rap niggas to name drop
Cause bitch I'm pulling up with 2 strap, look like a tank top
My life in my rhymes, your [?] in your rhymes
I can tell when I look into the eyes of these guys
All this talk about the money, and the wheels that y'all drive
But go broke from an oil change, try to drive what I drive nigga
