Huh
Ayo

If I don't hustle, I don't benefit
That's the only thing I know
If I don't hustle, I don't benefit
Huh, that's the only thing I know
If I don't hustle, I don't benefit
And that's the only thing I know

Yo, at fourteen years old, you told where the drugs at
You been a snitch since a kid, you a rug rat
500 Judge and the slugs fat
And the kickback nudge like a love tap
Huh, I put a bitch in the drug trap
After she suck dick, she break a brick into dub sacks
Louis Vuitton rug mats
While you keep somethin' cheap on your feet like hubcaps
Huh, the shit y'all sellin' synthetic
I rap, sell crack, and I fix credit
I heard you move bricks 'cause a bitch said it
Loose lips, so I know where your ship headed
Huh, I wait there for the boatload
It ain't fair, this thing here in a chokehold
She do nails and she braid hair, I promote those
But she should start a cheap daycare for these broke hoes

If I don't hustle, I don't benefit
That's the only thing I know
If I don't hustle, I don't benefit
Huh, that's the only thing I know
If I don't hustle, I don't benefit
And that's the only thing I know

Ayo, you're lucky if you survive when a killer shoots you
I heard niggas want me to die, well, the feeling's mutual
Huh, they wonder how I'm alive, like, "Is it voodoo?"
While I survive from sellin' pies and livin' frugal
At least thirty K a day, my strip fruitful
The way these cats turn rat, this shit crucial
Huh, you a shooter when the stick-up kids salute you
Only accounts y'all got is Netflix and Hulu
Nigga, inside of my mind, it's a good and bad conscience
Arguin' with each other, I study responses
Haters get mad when they see us tag poppin'
Only reason you stressed out is from bag watchin'
If the bitch bad, we feed her crabs and lobsters
Boys that can't jab shouldn't clash with boxers
Y'all niggas never had options
Y'all chains and watches always been fake like Chad Johnson's
Huh

If I don't hustle, I don't benefit
That's the only thing I know
If I don't hustle, I don't benefit
Huh, that's the only thing I know
If I don't hustle, I don't benefit

And that's the only thing I know
