

Burn Marks

38 Spesh

Huh (LT Beatz)

Yeah

Ayo, ayo, huh

Before you turn start, gotta be bookworm smart
You wanna catch a big fish, gotta turn shark
Might fishtail but don't Dale Earnhardt
I made it through hell, nigga, you could see the burn marks
Never bought a bitch a bag, I ain't never purse bought
If a bitch ain't have a bag, that was her fault
Always kept sticks and quick to return sparks
Some shit I always stick with like my first thought
Niggas want me dead and, shit, that ain't the worst part
What's sad is these the niggas that I first taught
How to get money, was bummy and dirt poor
I put food in your kid's tummy, that's what hurt more
If you don't make a difference, fuck you on this Earth for?
Fuck rap, on the road to riches was my first tour
It made me alert more
I refuse to be that dude that get viewed through them church doors
Y'all think it's all surfboards, I've been through turf wars
You know, nurse calls, house shot up
That's why we don't sleep on the first floor
I been through it, it hurt more
Give me your shovel, I keep diggin' 'til I get to the Earth's core
My worst flaw was showin' love
I heard the opps been chillin' with my older cuz
I mean, these niggas want me shot and y'all go to clubs?
We supposed to be family, dog, how could I not hold a grudge? Huh

Men only become good men through negativity
Women are actually the opposite
Men who have been through a lot of pain are very kind
I would argue that when I see a man who's been through a lot of shit, it makes you kinder
You don't want it to be put on anyone else
The biggest gangsters and evil people can sometimes can be the kindest
When women go through a lot of pain, they grow bitter and evil
They don't grow kind
Men grow kind from pain
I think that the worst men on Earth are the ones that haven't had enough pain
Those are the arrogant, pieces-of-shit people
You're supposed to suffer as a man, you're born to suffer
