

Had It Coming

38 Spesh

Huh
Yeah
Let's go
Huh
Yeah
Let's go
Ayo

I heard he put somebody in jail, it ain't the first time
A nigga that'll shoot you and tell, they the worst kind
I got everything out the mud, had a dirt grind
Capricorn, Taurus, and Virgos, we the earth signs
Huh, I wish I could reverse times
It's Rochester, New York if you Google search the worst crimes
Don't eat places where they serve swine
Make random art, speakin' with a damaged heart and hurt mind
I'll never let you niggas hurt mine
I was worth nine hundred thou' 'fore I put out my first rhyme
Heard if you feed a dog raw egg, it make his fur shine
Huh, the streets where I learned mine
Not medical school, but eat off the same veins the nurse find
Jesus took water and turned wine
I'm the same, I started with a quarter, now I serve pies

I gave them what they wanted, always kept it a hundred
Can't call it off now, nigga, gave you what you wanted
Better build an ark, nigga, I'm about to flood it
And when them blickies spark, just know you had it coming
I gave them what they wanted, always kept it a hundred
Can't call it off now, nigga, gave you what you wanted
Better build an ark, nigga, I'm about to flood it
And when them blickies spark, just know you had it coming
You knew you had it coming

Uh, murder sports without moving cautious, it almost cost us
We been them niggas before the office, go call your bosses
That made me sick to my stomach, just off the thought, I'm nauseous
It came too weird to ignore your wins and record your losses
When from Accords to Porsches
When you a walker's dog, that money come with all these entendres, it brought me double crosses
Success unlocked the jaws of all the talkers
I thank the Lord I saw this
Somewhere along the lines, the slums went corporate
Being trapped in a bubble taught us it wasn't for us
Now they applaud us, jealousy in enormous portions
Deleted weaknesses, it's all precautions
Protected 'cause you bang a set, huh? Victim when they perform extortions Shuttin' your mouth keeps you out of drama you don't belong in
'Cause there's no warnings, casualties happen mornings often
Ready to die and can't afford the coffin
Your prize before misfortune
So fuck all that back-and-forthing

I gave them what they wanted, always kept it a hundred
Can't call it off now, nigga, gave you what you wanted
Better build an ark, nigga, I'm about to flood it

And when them blickies spark, just know you had it coming
I gave them what they wanted, always kept it a hundred
Can't call it off now, nigga, gave you what you wanted
Better build an ark, nigga, I'm about to flood it
And when them blickies spark, just know you had it coming
You knew you had it coming
