Guess I grew to be a reflection of what they taught us (Uh)
Started off smaller (Smaller), progressed and got smarter (Smarter)
Thinkin' of the days that I was stressin' hot water
Made a transition (Uh), aggressive shot caller (Uh-huh)
My jewelry keep switching (Right), my neck is bipolar (Woo)
Days that I couldn't sleep, death was 'round the corner
And that real beef have you puttin' vestes 'round your daughter (Woo)
I'ma try harder to be a better father (Uh)
But what I'm 'posed to do when all these niggas want to rob us?
Huh, I think harder, I'm blowin' my stink (Stink)
I pose and I think (Think), this started from a stove and a sink (Woo)
Now my chick Rover is pink (Pink), bag a ho when I blink (Blink)
One bitch holding my mink (Mink), other holding my drink (Drink)
And it's crazy, these niggas want me low in the clink
But I ain't worried (Worried), I got Jesus holding my link
That's what it is (Is), you know I stand for what I stand for
I put all of my mans on so I can't fall
I plan for and demand more
And grandma, ya grandson's a landlord and more
It's like I've been blessed since a kid (Kid)
Only thing I wan' do is rest with the kids
So I do my dirt far away from where I live, nigga
I don't want to bring them evil spirits to the crib, nigga
