Huh
Huh
Right
Know I'm saying?
Right
Know I mean?
You know I love this shit right here
Know I mean?
This my type of music
Know I'm saying?
Huh
Huh

Ayo, 'huh
You thought I'd be unsuccessful
So you let go
Don't know what happened
Thought that we had something special
But I seen you fold under pressure
That's unacceptable
We gotta let go
This shits becoming stressful
First they love you
'Till they lost you
First they say "I do"
Then they divorce you
Huh
It gets painful
It feels awful
Remaining cordial
With somebody that crossed you
Now
Ya mouth forgive me
I wonder if ya heart do?
Cause ya animosity make ya harder to talk to
And I know you'll never forget me because it scar'd you
And you probably wanna forgive me it's just hard to Every time I call you
All we do is argue
I gave you the keys to the Vee's
And credit cards too
1 time you called the police
That shit is horrible
Knowing my closet full of dirty money and dog-food
You told secrets
Got ya sister involved too
Now ya whole family don't like me
Even ya Mom'Dukes
Could care less how they feel
Hate to inform you
I ain't for you
Relationship ain't normal
Look how I rose
I'm walking on floors that's marble
Designer clothes
And all of my hoes adorable
Then I got locked down

But somehow I called you
And you was there for me
To support me in the courtroom

Unconditional Love round here
Huh
I wouldn't trade it for the world
Might argue and fight, Dat's life
But whether you're wrong or right
Ya always my babygirl, huh
