

2Far Gone

3Breezy

I put my heart into someone and I lost my soul forever
And still I pray for better days, but it don't make me better
L-O-V-E, it's all a dream, but I don't love them letters
So when you step, better watch your step, the devil out to get ya
Cause if they love me like they say, what would I be now
Bitch you was covered by them clouds, but I can see now
Look my reflection in the mirror, it's me and you now
They tryna tear a nigga up, but I won't break down
Crazy how they did me
Know the world against me
Baby, I need a pit stop, I been running on empty
Maybe I'm too far gone
Baby, is my heart gone?

Crazy how you did me
Can't believe I didn't see
That you was gone leave, turn against me
Can't believe my own bro
Switched over these lame hoes
Used to be my dawgs, I remember sharing the same clothes
Now look at what you did
Know that I love you forever cause you is my brother but sorry
I'm keeping my distance
My man had told me these bitches I'm seeing that I should've listened
From the start, it's too late, I lost my heart
Tried to piece myself together and it's tearing me apart
But I'm trying
Thought that you would suit me well, baby we was tied in Thought you was my brother, but instead you was disguising
Should I just give up or keep on pushing? I'm deciding Hard to find my place inside this world I'm tryna find it
Needed you to guide me
I had lost my way and aint nobody come and find me
Yeah I made mistakes in life but that ain't gon' define me
Cause that's just who I was, but that change in this because

I put my heart into someone and I lost my soul forever
And still I pray for better days, but it don't make me better
L-O-V-E, it's all a dream, but I don't love them letters
So when you step, better watch your step, the devil out to get ya
Cause if they love me like they say, what would I be now
Bitch you was covered by them clouds, but I can see now
Look my reflection in the mirror, it's me and you now
They tryna tear a nigga up, but I won't break down
Crazy how they did me
Know the world against me
Baby, I need a pit stop, I been running on empty
Maybe I'm too far gone
Baby, is my heart gone?
