

Cutting ties, what the fuck do I need friends for?
I been tryna vibe, I been really tryna lay low
When I'm by myself, feel like my stresses disappear
Please don't take it personal, this how a nigga feel
I might wake up in the morning and delete all of my socials
I might take a trip, said see ya later, I don't know you
I can't do attention baby you keep that exposure
Keeping antisocial

Said what's a friend? Said fuck a friend then
The only thing I want to be around was them blue hundreds
I peep them niggas love to laugh and joke, they think I'm funny
I say okay, okay
I bet I pave the way
How much I made today
I keep my feelings safe
Don't want no love, I'm straight, I'm tryna fly away
These bitches weird, but these niggas a little weirder
I see a fighter when I look up in the mirror
Your presence strong and them mothefuckers fear ya
Know it's a lot of talk behind my back but I don't hear em
Push the whip a lil faster
I don't fuck with them other niggas, them other niggas be actors
He an actress, and he broke the law so that's a bad bitch
Lay a nigga flatter than a mattress
Why the fuck they capping?
I don't go to movies but I'm all about that action
I try to keep the peace, but if a nigga try me
Got a ripper with extension, cook him like Hibachi
I'm with it, don't try me

Cutting ties, what the fuck do I need friends for?
I been tryna vibe, I been really tryna lay low
When I'm by myself, feel like my stresses disappear
Please don't take it personal, this how a nigga feel
I might wake up in the morning and delete all of my socials
I might take a trip, said see ya later, I don't know you
I can't do attention baby you keep that exposure
Keeping antisocial
