

Hey Beautiful

3Breezy

Da, Da
Da, Da
Ya, Ya, mmmhmmm

Shit, believe me when I say "Trust in time", it heals everything

Hey there beautiful, I heard you had a long day
Promise it get better it's gon' be okay
I know that you tired of pain it just ain't feeling right
Battles with your mind, holding back, you wanna live your life
When they say that "Time heals", best believe that time heals
Overnight is ideal
Wondering why I feel this way
Pain don't last forever, it's gon' be okay

All them broken promises
Every night you cried alone, yeah
Time to pick your head up, time to run your bread up, you sitting on your throne
Throw on your favorite dress and turn up to your favorite song
Take a look up in the mirror, see you stronger than you thought
Oh yeah, like to see you smile like that
Oh yeah, girl I hope you know your blessed for real, oh yeah
Baby you so stunning, aye
Every opportunity, turn nothing into something, aye
Take a look up in the distance, you can see the future coming aye
You living life now how you should
When life beating you down just remember one thing
Just look back in the past and see how far you came
They try to tear you down but you still remain
In a blink of an eye, that's how fast it change

Hey there beautiful, I heard you had a long day
Promise it get better it's gon' be okay
I know that you tired of pain it just ain't feeling right
Battles with your mind, holding back, you wanna live your life
When they say that "Time heals", best believe that time heals
