

Isolation

3Breezy

When you tell me that you love me better say it with your chest
I ain't got no time for goofys I don't need the extra stress
Everyone that came around they fucked around and up and left
Keep my heart in isolation gotta protect it from the rest

Real pain I never speak on
I've been fighting my demons all week long
I've been tryna get a little peace on
But it's hard to get it feeling weak now
I know life ain't easy
I'm still tryna figure out believe me
Every time the storm comes down
I still gotta figure out
Find a way to make it out the rain yeah
I done gave it all I got
Fighting for another shot
And I ain't gonna stop till I drop
But it just don't feel the same

I don't like these niggas or these bitches don't associate
I don't wanna be bothered so I walk around with a poker face
Attitude on reckless get it from my mama's side
I ain't taking no more chances with my heart I'm traumatized
That feeling when you wanna open up but you can't though
Last time I tried I almost cried and went insane so
I keep my feelings tucked away it's for the better
Opened to the wrong one and now I wish I never met them swear to god

I talked to the man in the mirror
He said I'm the only one that ever try to hear him
I talked to the man in the mirror
When you feel alone you better know I'm always here for you
You give me the go you know I got you
If you wanna bust a move you know I ride too
Said it don't matter wrong or right I'm right beside you
Man in the mirror hope you know you all I got too

When you tell me that you love me better say it with your chest
I ain't got no time for goofys I don't need the extra stress
Everyone that came around they fucked around and up and left
Keep my heart in isolation gotta protect it from the rest

Real pain I never speak on
