3Breezy

The other night I typed a Paragraph just to delete it
Know if I send that shit that you ain't gon read it, so why try?
When I know that I ain't even on your mind

But I guess its the shit I've been thru, fuckin with my mental
The coldest nights, ain't had nobody I could vent to
But still I respect you, you know I'll protect you
Even though I wonder would you do the same?

So if you had to pick is you choosing me?
Don't know but its just something that you do to me
And even tho I know you ain't no good for me

Just pull up
Just pull up lil baby pull up yeah
Pull up yeah, pull up yeah, pull up lil baby pull up yeah
Pull up yeah, pull up yeah, pull up lil baby pull up
I've been tryna find the strength somehow, was a shoulder
I could lean on but you let me down, disappointed in myself
I let you tear me down, I get lost in my thoughts to get away somehow

But at the end of the day ima love you regardless
Even though you left a black hole where my heart is Yeah we came a long way looking back at where we started
But I've been trying to piece where our love was fallen

Long nights, cold days, sunsets bring more rain
I've been praying for peace and tryna fight for a change, silly me Ima dummy
Wouldn't use me if you loved me, hope is all I have for you

So if you had to pick is you choosing me?
Don't know but its just something that you do to me
And even tho I know you ain't no good for me

Just pull up
Just pull up lil baby pull up yeah
Pull up yeah, pull up yeah, pull up lil baby pull up yeah
Pull up yeah, pull up yeah, pull up lil baby pull up

Been trying to keep my head straight, but people come around and show love
That's so fake
Please don't ask me about my past baby that's a cold case
You go to the next and I go back to old ways

They say the good die Young, the Young live on
I always see the good when I've been done so wrong
You give em your heart they still move on
And that's the fucking reason I'm so scared to love anyone

I got you on my mind & a bottle in my left hand, the drank starts to kick in I'm slowly reminiscing, a dark deep depression & slowly I fell in
If I wrote a letter, would you get the message?
