

Perfect Imperfections

3Breezy

I know that we all have our days, we don't always feel our best
, but um
Here to remind you that I love you, you the best, and um
Christian Dior you, I adore you nonetheless
Our love euphoric, been the only thing to take away my stress
That's what I love, that's what I need
I don't think you know how much you really mean to me
I know you may feel that you ain't good enough for me
But I can't function without you, so it's a heart without a beat

You the baddest of the bad, that's a fact
And every time we out in public, know I keep them niggas mad
Got 'em like "Damn Breezy, how you get a girl like that?"
I said "Don't worry nigga, you'll fuck up your world like that"
Every little thing that you do keep me starstruck
Every little move that you take make my heart pump
If only you could see what I see, you would see that I see that I'm cutting off those ties, them other hoes know I don't need that I know you ain't perfect sometimes, you may catch an attitude
But I ain't perfect either baby, how could I be mad at you?
Know you been through it all, want you to know a nigga proud of you
You shitting on every single bitch that ever doubted you
It's something bout her smile, it's something bout her lips
It's something bout the way she drop it down and move her hips
Got niggas talking out they neck they steady saying I'm a simp
But what more can I say, I'm in love with this shit

I know that we all have our days, we don't always feel our best
