

Self Love

3Breezy

Vall she know is pain
No she don't even know what love means
Cry to herself at night thinking who going love me
With every battle scare sits another story
Searching for the right one, lost love you glory
You don't need nobody when you got ya self
You chasing them niggas when they ain't got nothing to offer
Say fuck 'em leave 'em on the shelf
I know that you tired
I know that you over there stressing
That shit it ain't good for ya health
But lemme tell you ain't know better love
Than being in love with yourself

Girl you too beautiful, had to let know
I don't wanna see you hurting like this
Just know that time going heal
It don't always hurt like this no
What's meant to be just let it find you
Every step that you take Breezy beside you
It's raining it's pouring, you stuck in the storm
But I know you going fight through the weather
And I know this ain't the shit you wanna hear
But I promise I just want it better
I'll take my Gucci scarf off round my neck and wipe your tears away
Trust me I been hurt too but I seen them better days

All she know is pain
No she don't even know what love means
Cry to herself at night thinking who going love me
With every battle scare sits another story
Searching for the right one, lost love you glory
You don't need nobody when you got ya self
You chasing them niggas when they ain't got nothing to offer
Say fuck 'em leave 'em on the shelf
I know that you tired
I know that you over there stressing
That shit it ain't good for ya health
But lemme tell you ain't know
