(Era)

Oh, oh

Oh, oh

Baby, don't hold it in, said it's okay to cry
I know he did some foul shit, it left you traumatized
And ever since he did you wrong, baby, your world so different
Feel like it's something missin', baby, your world been spinnin'

You took advantage knowin' she ain't wanna be touched
Can't take back none of the pain you've caused, you just don't give a fuck
Don't worry, baby, we'll let karma do him in
For everyone who did you wrong, said they gon' fall up in the end

Beautiful soul, had a beautiful heart
But you went and took that shit and ripped it apart
No, I ain't trippin', but I hope you get the picture
How the fuck would you feel if that was your mother or your sister?

She feel ashamed to even talk at all
Don't feel embarrassed, girl, it wasn't your fault
No sleep at nights, she havin' flashbacks (Havin' flashbacks)
Of all them times she told you, "Stop" 'cause she ain't like that ('Cause she ain't like that)
She told you it was hurtin', but you just kept on goin'
She thought that you was different, but the real you steady showin'
Still healin' from the scars, you left without even knowin'
That she don't feel the same no more, lil' baby, she's so broken

Baby, don't hold it in, said it's okay to cry
I know he did some foul shit, it left you traumatized
And ever since he did you wrong, baby, your world so different
Feel like it's something missin', baby, your world been spinnin'
