

Toxic Traits

3Breezy

Don't tell me to chill, it's time to turn up in this bitch
Please don't make no funny moves and make me nervous in this bitch

Another loss, another lesson learned
How could you switch up on the only one who put you first
How could you rip my heart up out my chest and do me dirt
I guess I wasn't meant to trust, I'm haunted by the curse

Now when you see me on my feet standing tall the way I should
Don't try and knock me down, can't understand what's understood
Don't ask me how I'm doing, fuck I wish a nigga would Ever since you fucked me over, I feel my heart been getting colder

Don't tell me to chill, it's time to turn up in this bitch
Please don't make no funny moves and make me nervous in this bitch
I don't wanna have to tweak and leave you hurtin' in this bitch
I know this ain't no better but you move funny with the shit

I'm on my demon time, get it back to scheming time
I want to make you hurt the way I hurt so you can feel me
Only way to stop a nigga now you gotta kill me
I been tryna hold these feelings in but they keep screaming

Say you love that toxic love, well bitch I'm crazy
And I'll be damned if I show some mercy to a bitch who wanna play me
Lookin' for them sunny days, I'll have 'em storming something shady
And don't think I'm letting up, I wanna fuck ya mental daily

Take a look at what you did to me
You ain't think twice so why the fuck should I show sympathy
I tried to speak on how I felt but you won't hearing me
Well now the damage done

Another loss, another lesson learned
How could you switch up on the only one who put you first
How could you rip my heart up out my chest and do me dirt
I guess I wasn't meant to trust, I'm haunted by the curse

Now when you see me on my feet standing tall the way I should
Don't try and knock me down, can't understand what's understood
