

Would You Understand

3LAU

Baby, don't you feel it
Feel the way our hearts won't synchronize?
Tryna catch your rhythm
Keep on missing, cadence won't align
Well you push and I pull
Say we're good but it's obvious, oh

Babe, I know you feel it like I feel it
No, you can't deny

So if I looked in your eyes
And I said it was time that we let this go
If I told you that my feelings faded
And I need to let you go
Would you put up a fight?
Scream and cry, "Baby please don't go"
Or would you understand?
Would you understand?

I don't know what happened
When it happened, when the passion died out
Lost sight of each other
Can't recover, dimmed our colors down
Lay my head on your chest
Say we're good but it's obvious, oh

Babe, I know you feel it like I feel it
Know it's over now

So if I looked in your eyes
And I said it was time that we let this go
If I told you that my feelings faded
And I need to let you go
Would you put up a fight?
Scream and cry, "Baby please don't go"
Or would you understand?
Would you understand?

Would you understand?
Would you understand?
Would you release my hand?
Give up all we had?
Would you let it end?
Would you understand?
Would you understand?

So if I looked in your eyes
And I said it was time that we let this go
If I told you that my feelings faded
And I need to let you go
Would you put up a fight?
Scream and cry, "Baby please don't go"
Or would you understand?
Would you understand?
Would you understand?
