My First Kiss

My first kiss went a little like this Mwah mwah and twist Mwah mwah and twist Well my first kiss went a little like this And twist And twist I said no more teachers And no more books I got a kiss under the bleachers Hoping that nobody looked Lips like licorice Tongue like candy Excuse me miss but can I get you out your panties In the back of the car, on the way to the bar I got you on my lips (I got you on my lips) At the foot of the stairs With my fingers in your hair Baby, this is it She won't ever get enough Once she gets a little touch If I had it my way You know that I'd make her say Ooh, ooh She won't ever get enough Once she gets a little touch If I had it my way You know that I'd make her say Ooh, ooh My first kiss went a little like this I said no more sailors and no more soldiers With your name in a heart tattooed up on the shoulders Your kiss is like whiskey, it gets me drunk And I wake up in the morning with the taste of your tongue In the back of the car on the way to the bar I got you on my lips (I got you on my lips) At the foot of the stairs With my fingers in your hair Baby, this is it She won't ever get enough Once she gets a little touch If I had it my way You know that I'd make her say Ooh, ooh She won't ever get enough Once she gets a little touch If I had it my way
