

There's someone in love with you, you know
Just don't wanna let that feeling show
Because they're not sure that you could ever feel the same
But now he would like to take a chance
In hopes that you both will find romance
In case you are willing
There's something I'd like you to know

Girl, if ever you call me
I'm there for you girl, right or wrong
I'm telling you now girl
If ever you need me
I promise you I'll give you my all

Someone who will love and sacrifice
Who knows what it means to treat you right
Someone who won't change his mind
But always feels the same
He wants you to open up your heart
In hopes that true love might one day start
Girl if you are willing
There's something I'd like you to know

Darling here's my heart
Please take care my darling dear
Cos I...I do...love you...it's true
And I hope that you are willing girl to love me in return
And if you are
I want you to know
