

I gave you life and taught you death
Built in clay and blood for breath
I am the lies, I am the myth
Serpent of the monolith
Small minds search for hidden keys
Stare right past when I repeat
I am foreign, I am free
This world has nothing over me

I designed your mind
Underneath the blackened sun
Helix intertwined
With the blood of alien
I designed your mind
Underneath the blackened sun
Helix intertwined
With the blood of alien
With the blood of
With the blood of alien

Lie after lie, I wrote your fate
Built with pain and sold with hate
I am the time, I am your shape
Merchant of atomic hate
Revealing time as I complete
The final stage of prophecy
Your DNA is obsolete
Now I merge you with machine

I designed your mind
Underneath the blackened sun
Helix intertwined
With the blood of alien
I shall bind your eyes
As I now remove your tongue
Compliance hypnotized
With the blood of alien
With the blood of
With the blood of
With the blood of
With the blood of alien

I confine your sign
With the crown of saurian
Lies are synchronized
In the absence of your love
I shall bind your eyes
As I now remove your tongue
Compliance hypnotized
With the drug obsidian

With the blood of

With the blood of
With the blood of
With the blood of

With the blood of alien
